

POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Program Advisor-Academics (PAA) is a live in paraprofessional member of UCR's Department of Residential Life. The PA position is trusted with a high level of responsibility to support the department's mission to be "committed to the development of a safe and inclusive, living and learning community, which holistically fosters academic, social, cultural, and personal growth."

The PAA lives in one assigned residential community and assumes primary responsibility for shaping an environment that supports academic and personal development, for responding to the personal needs of area residents, and for managing critical administrative tasks, including policy enforcement and crisis management. Each PAA will oversee one of the academic Living-Learning Communities (LLC); CHASS, Enginuity, Pre-Business, SiMS, or Honors. The PAA creates and implements a variety of programs and activities throughout the year for their assigned community. The PAA also participates in department-wide initiatives to provide learning opportunities for residents as well as opportunities for residents to build community.

The PAA position is responsible for responding to changing needs and situations and requires maturity, integrity, flexibility, adaptability, enthusiasm, commitment, strong administrative skills, and a willingness to grow in all areas. The PAA is under the supervision, guidance, training, and development of the Assistant Director (AD) for Academic Living-Learning Communities and Initiatives and the Assistant Resident Director (ARD) for Academics.

Additional guidelines are provided in the Conditions of Employment, and expectations set by the department, communities, and individual supervisors.
